2. [REDACTED] Talked to Mr. Woodruff, on the staff of Senate Appropriations Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General indicated informally that he was prepared to give the Agency a favorable ruling on the matter of disposal of records if he could be provided with appropriate letters from Senator Russell and from Congressmen Rivers and Mahon. I advised Mr. Woodruff that we would discuss drafts of this with him within a few days.

3. [REDACTED] Talked to Charles Flower, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, on the case of [REDACTED] who had been injured in Laos in 1963 while in the employment of [REDACTED]. I gave him the circular from the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, dated May 1963, which discussed the application of the Workmens' Compensation laws applicable. I indicated to Flower that we intended to take no further action on the case since the legal remedies appear to be clear and thus there would be no justification for a private bill as proposed by the attorneys for [REDACTED]
